April 25, 2014

Dear Students:

Please find listed below the Graduate tuition and fee rates for the 2014-2015 academic year. In consideration of our students, Bethune-Cookman University continues to fall below the national average cost of tuition for private institutions and remains one of the most affordable options for individuals choosing to attend an HBCU.

	Fall 2014	Spring 2015	Total
Graduate Programs
Tuition (9 hours)*	$6,750	$6,750	$13,500
Fees:
Student Administration Fee	100	100	200
Technology Fee	150	150	300
Endowment Fee	50	50	100
Total	$7,050	$7,050	$14,100
Cost per Credit Hour: $750

*Students who exceed 9 credit hours will be charged an additional $1,000 per credit hour for each credit that exceeds 9.

Please note that students who reside on campus will be assessed a room rate based on the hall selected: $3,355 per semester (all halls except Lee E. Rhyant Residential Life Center) or $3,709 per semester (Lee E. Rhyant Residential Life Center) plus $925 for board.

The trustees, administrators, faculty and staff of Bethune-Cookman University look forward to the 2014-2015 academic year with anticipation of great achievements for both the institution and the students it serves.
